PREAMBLE

An International Federation for Skyrunning (running at altitude), has been founded in 2008 following the transformation of the Federation for Sport at Altitude (FSA), founded in 1995.

The International Skyrunning Federation, hereinafter ISF, was created to promote, govern and administer the sport of skyrunning and similar multisports activities. Skyrunning is defined as running in the mountains above 2,000m altitude where the climbing difficulty does not exceed II° grade and the incline is over 30%.

Skyrunning and SkySports disciplines are divided into different categories: SkyMarathon®, SkyRace®, SkyRaid® and Vertical Kilometer® (registered trademarks). Also SkySpeed, Vertical Running, SkyTrail and Ultra SkyMarathon®.

Skyrunner® (registered trademark) is the term defining those who participate in running competitions up to or above 2,000m altitude. The Skyrunner® trademark is incorporated in the ISF logo.

The ISF undertakes to diffuse the practice of skyrunning with respect for the environment, to promote private and public sports events, to develop training schools and to foster the medical-physical welfare of competitors.

The ISF aims to administer the sport of skyrunning, competitions and events as an independent International Federation with its own legal entity.

The name of the independent International Federation from July 2008, is the International Skyrunning Federation (ISF).

These statutes are an adaptation of the previous existing FSA statutes.

I. BASIS

Article 1

The International Skyrunning Federation (ISF) is responsible for all aspects of international skyrunning and associated multisports (course and raid competitions) at altitude.

The principal purposes of the ISF are the direction, regulation, promotion, development and furtherance of the sport of skyrunning and multisports on a world-wide basis.

The ISF fosters links, networks, and friendly relations among its members, their athletes and officials.

- h) to appoint and remove persons (employees) entrusted with the management of ISF's day-to-day operations;
- i) to make recommendations on the terms and conditions of contracts to be concluded with third parties outside ISF.
- j) to decide on membership issues between Plenary Assembly meetings
- k) to decide the official means of information of the ISF.

Article 25

The Management Committee will meet at least twice every year, upon the Executive Board's call. The organisation of its meetings shall be entrusted alternately to one of the member associations being represented in the Management Committee.

The Management Committee will meet also upon the request of the majority of its members.

Article 26

The Agenda for the Management Committee meetings is prepared by the Executive Board. However, any member of the Management Committee is entitled to present proposals for the agenda. Such proposals must be submitted, with relevant documentation, at least one month before the date set for any Management Committee meeting. The full agenda shall be sent by the Executive Board to the Management Committee members at least two weeks prior to the meeting date.

Article 27

Every member of the Management Committee has one vote. All decisions of the Management Committee are taken by majority of the members present, and no voting rights may be exercised by proxy. The quorum of the Management Committee consists of a majority of its members.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

Article 28

The five officers of the ISF as mentioned in Article 22 form the Executive Board of the Management Committee.

The Executive Board is responsible for carrying out all those routine duties and specific tasks that have to be fulfilled between meetings of the Management Committee. This includes in particular:

- a) to undertake administrative duties and tasks;
- b) to supervise ISF approved competitions;
- c) to decide the composition of the jury and of the course setting team at IFSA approved competitions;
- d) to supervise and co-ordinate the work of the Technical Commissions;
- e) to control ISF finances;
- f) to appoint an ISF delegate for ISF events as necessary
- g) to initiate and undertake negotiations with third parties.

All statements and contracts which bind the ISF must be signed by the President and one other member of the Executive Board. In case of absence and on request of the President, the President may be replaced by another member of the Executive Board.

The Executive Board is responsible for the functioning of the administrative office of the ISF. All permanent employees are hired by the Executive Board and employed in accordance with the annual budget.

Article 29

The Executive Board meets as often as business requires. Decisions are taken by a simple majority, the President having the casting vote in the event of a tie.

The Executive Board may take decisions by correspondence and/or by any other means of communication. To be valid, decisions taken in this way have to be approved by a minimum of three officers.

THE PRESIDENT

Article 30

The President chairs all meetings of the Plenary Assembly, the Management Committee and the Executive Board. He represents skyrunning competition in all important matters, especially those pertaining to the IOC and other International organisations.

The President may, from time to time, delegate various aspects of ISF management to other members of the Management Committee.

The President, or a Board member designated by the President, is entitled to attend and participate in all Commission meetings, but without vote.

Article 31

If the President is prevented from attending a meeting of the Management Committee or a Plenary Assembly, the Management Committee will appoint one of the Vice Presidents to chair those meetings.

In case of death or disability of the President, the Vice-President shall assume the President's duties until the next Plenary Assembly. Should the Vice-President in turn be unable to fulfil his/her obligations, the Treasurer/Vice President and/or the member of the Management Committee who has served on the Management Committee the longest shall assume his/her duties and convene an Extraordinary Plenary Assembly in order to elect appropriate replacements.

CONTINENTAL COUNCILS

Article 32

Continental Councils are responsible for the administration, development and furtherance of skyrunning competition in a specific continent or geographic area. The Continental Councils shall comply with and enforce the rules and regulations of the ISF and co-operate with ISF bodies. They organise continental championships and other competitions in their area.

The Statutes and Regulations of the Continental Councils must be submitted to the Management Committee for approval.

TECHNICAL COMMISSIONS

Article 33

The Management Committee appoints Technical Commissions for specific tasks, in particular it will form an Event Commission, a Rules Commission and a Commission for Education and Training. The mandate of each Commission is reviewed by the Management Committee to determine its future validity and effectiveness.

Members of these Commissions are proposed by Member associations. Their membership expires at end of the term of the Management Committee.

Each Commission is directed by one of its members (President), who is appointed by the Management Committee.

ANTI-DOPING, DISCIPLINARY AND APPEALS COMMISSIONS AND RULES

Article 34

The function of the Anti-Doping Commission is to ensure that the ISF complies with the World Anti-Doping Code. Its rules will comply with the World Anti-Doping Code.

The function of the Disciplinary Commission is to investigate and take appropriate action following any complaint concerning breach of rules (including the ISF Anti-Doping Rules) or misconduct.

The function of the Appeals Commission is to decide appeals from decisions taken by the Disciplinary Commission.

Rules concerning these Commissions and their rules are set out in a regulation made by the Plenary Assembly.

Decisions of the Appeal Commission may be appealed to the Court of Arbitration for Sport (in Lausanne, Switzerland). The procedure before the Court of Arbitration for Sport takes place according to its regulations. The decision of the International Court of Arbitration for Sport will be final and there will be no further appeal from it. If a member goes to civil court, he will be automatically excluded from ISF.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Article 35

Disputes arising under the ISF Statutes or otherwise, will be dealt with under the procedure and rules set out in a regulation made by the Plenary Assembly.

The final determination of a dispute can be appealed to the Court of Arbitration for Sport (in Lausanne, Switzerland).

The procedure before the Court of Arbitration for Sport takes place according to its regulations. The decision of the Court of Arbitration for Sport will be final and there will be no further appeal from it.

ATHLETES' COMMISSION

Article 36

The Athletes' Commission provides a permanent liaison between active athletes and the ISF. One representative appointed by the Athletes' Commission is elected by the Plenary Assembly as member of the Management Committee.

Composition and functioning of the Athletes' Commission are described in the relevant regulations as approved by the Plenary Assembly.

VI. FINANCES

Article 37

The FSA will finance its own activities through sources such as:

- a) Membership and subscription fees of its Members
- b) The organization and authorization of Competitions, competitor entry fees, and any other fees relating to official competitions;
- c) Any other sources that may be available (sponsorships, TV rights, donations, etc.).

Article 38

The activities of all bodies of ISF are conducted without compensation to the individuals who serve thereon. The expenses of the Executive Board, the Management Committee and the Commissions are borne by the ISF according to regulations of the Management Committee.

Within approved budgets, the Plenary Assembly of the ISF and the Management Committee are empowered to authorise payment of fees and expenses to individuals and/or organisations to provide specific professional service or advice.

Article 39

The financial year of the ISF shall run from the 1st January to the 31st December annually.

Article 40

The Plenary Assembly of the ISF shall receive and approve annual budgets detailing the forecast income from all sources and the proposed annual expenditure and shall establish and maintain financial accounting system and produce annual accounts audited by the accredited Auditor, appointed by the Plenary Assembly of the ISF.

Article 41

Only the assets of the ISF can be used to settle ISF liabilities and obligations. Any liability of the Member Associations is excluded.

Article 42

The basic currency for annual accounting purposes will be the Euro.

VII. DISSOLUTION OF ISF

Article 43

A three quarter majority of the ISF members may propose an Extraordinary Assembly for the dissolution of the ISF. The dissolution becomes effective on approval of the proposal by a three quarter majority at the Plenary Assembly, providing that at least two third of the members entitled to vote are present or represented at the Plenary Assembly.

The disposal of the assets of the ISF shall be decided by the Plenary Assembly dissolving the ISF and shall be in keeping with the aims of the ISF and transferred to a tax exempt Swiss legal entity.
